

Sukalp Manthan 2024

Sukalp Manthan 2024 with the theme “Mutual cooperation between Voluntary Organizations, Academia and corporates for the Future of Bharat” was organized on 29th September 2024, at JNU by Sukalp Foundation. The conference aimed at setting a stage where various stakeholders of society from different professions and directing each one of them towards taking a lead role to initiate a change in the society from grass root levels. In this, various panelists and speakers who have excelled their respective fields graced the event by guiding us and channelizing the flow of the conference.

Mr. Ramesh Agarwal- Founder of Agarwal packers and movers also our Chief guest gave an amazing start to the conference by sharing some inspiring insights from his own personal journey and highlighted the importance of social contribution while being involved in the profit earning activities.

Mrs. Suparna Diwakar co-founder of ISDM, Adanya Chetana and few more organizations and institutions and a Researcher, shared her views on the current education system and reforms that NEP has brought in. She also connected it with the SDG and strongly proposed the SDG 18 to be added in the list that focuses on making people get back to their roots and preserve the exceptional culture that we have. Another interesting session was that of Mr. Nikhil Pant (Founder Lakshyaa and Co-founder REACHA) and the other panelists including Mr. Sanjay Bhatia (Head CSR, MNC), Mr. Chetan Kapoor (CEO, Tech Mahindra Foundation), Mr. Asim Khan (Head CSR Cadence) and Mrs. Shalini Taneja (Associate Professor at FORE institute of management), all of whom were leading CSRs of top most companies. In this session, Mr. Nikhil Pant while leading the panel touched the core foundations and Laws of CSRs and guided us about how to approach the corporates and how the collaborations could be done in the most fruitful manner between two strong pillars i.e. corporates and NGO's.

The conference also included workshops and panel discussions where Mr. Anand Mishra, Mr. Anil Reddy (ED Seva International), Prof. Ravi Shukla (JNU), Prof. Rabindra Manukonda (JNU), Prof. Shuchi Yadav (JNU), Prof. Priyadarshi Rathod (Rishihood university), Mr. Jestin Anthony, Mr. Anirban Gupta (Founder- Dhriiti) were amongst the panelists and moderators who extended and shared their knowledge and experiences with all of us and told the importance of resilience, consistency, collectivism and also the need for change in the mindset of the Indian youth to envision the developed and powerful Bharat.

Overall the conference was a mark of dedication and the will of different minds to understand and bring a change at the ground level of the society so that no individual is left behind in the vikasit picture of future Bharat and that we stand tall as a unite and just Bharat.
